Phone: (Ahh)000-0000

Species: Canis lupus baileyi

County of residence: Greenlee

Years in Arizona: 4.5 (human)/32 (canid)

Objective

I seek an appointment to the Arizona Game and Fish Commission because I believe I could bring diversity, balance and a deep understanding of healthy systems to this important role. I can bring a unique, pro-wolf perspective that none of the current Commissioners seem to share, providing representation for the vast majority of Arizonans who want to see lobos fully restored in our state.

Education & Qualifications

2014: Graduated with honors in 2014, and was conferred “Named Wolf” status, by the Bosque School of Albuquerque.

2013-2014: Bluestem Pack Homeschool (Arizona), led by AF1042 and AM 1341 in experiential learning classroom along with five siblings.

Experience

Hunting Guide

2014 – present

- Mentored numerous juveniles in the art and skills of subsistence hunting, from tracking to caching
- Helped actively manage resident elk herds’ excessive use of riparian vegetation by volunteering to lead depredation hunts on national forest land

Alpha Female and Den Mother

2015 – 2017

- Home-birthed three litters and raised twelve Mexican wolf pups

Foster Mother and Homeschool Instructor

2017

- California Wolf Center, Julian, CA: Served as foster mother to two wolf pups and integrated them into the Panther Creek Homeschool curriculum

2016

- Endangered Wolf Center, Eureka, MO: Served as foster mother to two wolf pups and integrated them into the Panther Creek Homeschool curriculum

2015 – present

- Panther Creek Homeschool: Along with M1394, started with Panther Creek homeschool with one pupil. Developed curriculum and “lessons learned.”
