

Speak out to Save Mexican Wolves!

Public Hearing August 11, 2014

Only 83 Mexican gray wolves live in the wilds of the Southwest.

US Fish and Wildlife Service wants to allow more killing, pushing the lobo closer to extinction.

The wolves' future is being decided now.

Stand for the Southwest's native wolves August 11th!

Hon-Dah Conference Center

777 Hwy 260, Near Pinetop, AZ

6-9 pm Hearing

2 pm US Fish and Wildlife Service will begin taking sign-ups to speak

2 pm Join other wolf supporters in the Save the Lobo hospitality suite for activities and refreshments!

Participating Organizations:

Animal Defense League of Arizona · Animal Protection of New Mexico · Center for Biological Diversity · Conservation Voters of New Mexico · Defenders of Wildlife · Endangered Wolf Center · Grand Canyon Wildlands Council · Grand Canyon Wolf Recovery Project · Great Old Broads for Wilderness · Mesilla Valley Audubon · National WolfWatcher Coalition · New Mexico Audubon Council · New Mexico Wilderness Alliance · The Rewilding Institute · Sierra Club – El Paso Group · Sierra Club – Grand Canyon Chapter · Sierra Club – Rio Grande Chapter · Sky Island Alliance · Southwest Environmental Center · The Wildlands Network · Upper Gila Watershed Alliance · Western Watersheds Project · White Mountain Conservation League · WildEarth Guardians · Wolf Conservation Center

To ensure the lobo's future, save the date and spread the word!

Carpooling and help with lodging are available. More info:
www.mexicanwolves.org, email info@mexicanwolves.org