Arkanes

By Amelia E

I would name the pup Arkanes. Arkanes because the pup is a canine. I'd also call it Arkanes because the pups nestle close to there mother. And the word nes reminds me of loneliness and how they howl when there lonely as well as nestling. And it reminds me of one of my best frinds i had to leave when i moved.

Canyon

My Wolf Pup Name

By Adel V. - 4th Grade

I want to name a wolf pup canyon because they are native to Arizona where the Grand Canyon is. Mexican gray wolves have different colors in their fur like the rocks in the Canyon. They are swift like the Colorado river. They are strong like the rocks in the Canyon. Last they can fish in the river for food.

Kaden M. - 4th Grade

I think Ezekiroe Elliott Jr. will be a good name for a wolf. If the wolf is fast it will be good. If the wolf is nice and caring. Or it is good at wolf games. Ezekiroe Elliott is fast and a wolf has to be fast to catch a wound animal. If it has skill. I like wolves.

Keystone

Wolves are a keystone to life. Among many other things, they help keep the elk numbers in check. Without wolves, elk also trample vegetation thus hurting other animals' habitats. So I choose Keystone as a name for a wolf pup because wolves are important to the environment, to other animals and to our planet.

Wolves are loving creatures who deserve protections. It wasn't fair that us humans destroyed their habitat and killed many of them. Wolves are part of our history and we want them in our future.

Light

My Pup Name

By Kristy H.
4th Grade

I think that Light is a good name for a pup. I think it is a good name because light is a symbol of hope and the wolf pack needs hope to Survive. I also think Light is a good name because people want light to stay forever just like how some people want the mexican gray wolf not to go extinct. Another reason you should name a pup light is that light is a powerful energy source and I want the pups to be strong. The last reason is that light guides animals in the right way and I want the pups to be a strong leader.

Mexican Gray Wolf Name

By Lucas**

I think Nikki is a good name. I think Nikki is a good name because I had a stuffed animal and its name was Nikki. Also, because the stuffed animal was a wolf. Another reason is because I think Nikki is a good fit for a wolf. One reason I think Nikki is a good fit for a wolf is because wolves have names like Timber, or Talus. But Nikki is not common for a Mexican Gray Wolf. One more reason is that Nikki is a easy name to say and remember.

North

I think North is a good name for a Mexican Gray Wolf. Naming it after the story, Look to the North, which is a great story about 3 wolf pups. North is a great name for a wolf pup because if I could choose the talent for the pup it would be like a compass, so it knows where to go. Look to the North is about 3 wolf pups that they all have different talents. If you did pick North to be the name of the Mexican Gray Wolf it would make me happy.

Roxy

The pup's name

I think that Roxy is a good name for the pup because I think it is a cute name. I also think Roxy is a good name because it sounds playful and wild. Another reason I think it is a good name is because it sounds it would go with the things that the pups do like hunting and playing wolf pup games and many other things the pups like to do. My dog's name is Roxy too and she does all of the things that I just named but she does not do the hunting part. I think she does most of the wolf things because she is cousins with the wolves.

Sentouki

A Mexican Gray Wolf is a subspecies of Gray Wolf. They are commonly known as “El Lobo”. They are usually gray with a reddish brown color on their back. They have a sleek body and long legs to enable them to run fast. Mexican Gray Wolves are the smallest type of gray wolf.

Though they were once numbered in the thousands, they were mostly wiped out in North America in the 1970s, with just a handful existing in zoos. They, like other wolves and predators, are very misunderstood animals, and have been hunted to near extinction. This is really sad because they, and every animal in the world, are very important to the ecosystem.

I think Sentouki is a good name because it means fighter in Japanese. All wolves are fighters who will fiercely protect their families. Despite being so hated and misunderstood by so many people, they have managed to survive. I also think it’s a good name because wolves traditionally appeared in Japanese folklore as Shinto Gods, and were highly respected. Farmers in Japan used to worship wolves and leave them offerings of food. They were considered to be divine messengers who occupied a world where sacred nature hadn’t been tamed by civilization. One of my favorite movies is a Japanese movie called Princess Mononoke, where wolves were the protectors of the forest.

Thank you for everything you do to help protect wolves.

Streak

I think a good name for a pup is streak because a fast wolf pup is fast like a streak. Streak expresses how fast it is. Another reason it should be called streak is because you have to be fast to hunt. When the pup becomes a wolf he will be the alpha and that name will represent bravery. So I think it is a good name.

Tricô

I think Trico is the best name for my pup because Trico means hope and forgiveness in ancient writing of an ancient temple in the forest. The Trico was a giant hybrid between a wolf and a hawk it had the head,chest,and front legs of a wolf and the rest of the body was hawk including wings but the Trico could not fly. My wolf pup is the fastest pup in the pack just like the Trico.Trico is also very good at climbing trees. That is why I think Trico is the best name for a wolf pup.

Mexican Gray Wolf Pup

Name

By Andrew S. - 4th Grade

My opinion is that Zeus is a great choice of name for a newborn Mexican Gray wolf pup. This is because Zeus was a Greek god who was also the king of the gods. Zeus represents how a newborn pup is like a new king. A new king is like a gift to the people. It also represents how since Mexican Gray wolves are endangered, it is a very special gift. Zeus was also the god of lightning. This represents how powerful a wolf is. Zeus shows that wolves are like kings. Zeus would be a great name for a Mexican Gray wolf pup.
