

Sixth Annual Mexican Gray Wolf Pup Naming Contest

Guidelines and Entry Form

Deadline February 1, 2018 11:59 p.m. PST

Mexican gray wolves are the most endangered wolves in the world. Less than 120 roam the wildlands of the Southwest. And just like people, every Mexican wolf is special, and different, and deserving of his or her own identity.

The naming contest is open to children across the globe and is a great way for kids, teachers, and parents to learn and share about these wonderful animals.

We will be accepting entries in three age categories:

Kindergarten through second grade:

Send an email by the deadline to namelobopups@gmail.com that includes:

- This entry form and the parental consent form completed and
- Attached photographed or scanned artwork (any medium or type) featuring Mexican gray wolves in jpeg format

Third through Fifth grade:

Send an email by the deadline to namelobopups@gmail.com that includes:

- This entry form and the parental consent form completed and

Either

- Attached photographed or scanned artwork (any medium or type) featuring Mexican gray wolves in jpeg format

OR

- A short (no longer than one typed page) essay attached as a word, scanned, or plain text document

Sixth through Eighth grade:

Send an email by the deadline to namelobopups@gmail.com that includes:

- This entry form and the parental consent form completed and
- A short (no longer than one typed page) essay attached as a word or plain text document

IN ORDER TO BE CONSIDERED, THE FOLLOWING TWO PAGES MUST BE FILLED OUT COMPLETELY AND SUBMITTED WITH EACH CONTEST ENTRY.

THANK YOU
